OUR STRENGTHS

Technical Skills and Interpersonal Skills

Our tactical decisions take into account confidentiality, respect for privacy, and the protection of your image, and prioritize discretion.

The profiles of our agents (both men and women) are always carefully tailored to the context and the client.

Whether you're a business executive, a cryptocurrency holder, an athlete, an actor, a public figure, or someone else, we have a protection solution tailored to your situation, your environment, and your needs.

OUR EXPERTISES

Discretion, thoroughness, confidentiality

Protecting people requires a comprehensive view of risk, a thorough analysis, and a response and system tailored to the context.

We work primarily with experienced former government agents, both men and women, who have acquired their expertise within recognized European units in the field of close protection (GSPR, SDLP, Special Services, GSG9, DSU, etc.).
